Within this brochure you will find a full breakdown of costs.

The following examples are fully inclusive of all third party fees.

Memorial Jewellery

The range, designed by family jeweller Rob Leurs in the Netherlands, but made in-house by our team, has many affordable yet high-quality pieces. The jewellery offers something new and different when you want to cherish your special memories in a unique way.

Ashes, hair, and fingerprints can be years old, yet we can still use them to make the piece of jewellery you want. All jewellery is set in Hortons' Hull office, so you do not have to send off any ashes or hair and worry about them being lost or mixed up.

Hortons is the brand store for the North of England enabling us to have the full range available for you to view and try in our Hull office with another smaller display at our North Cave chapel.

Please speak with a member of the team who will be able to give you more information and supply you with a brochure to be able to take away and view in your own time when you feel ready.
